

This Is Your Life.

Enjoy Drama, Love and Comedy This Summer with

William Shakespeare

And Your Fellow GRC / ACE Students and GECO Families.

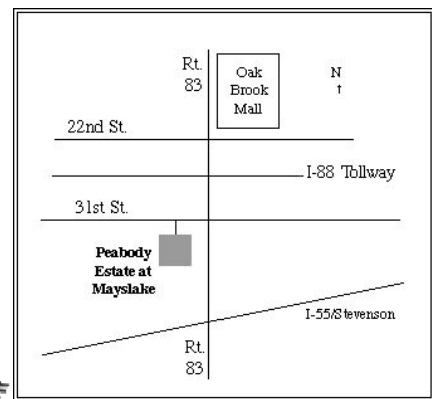

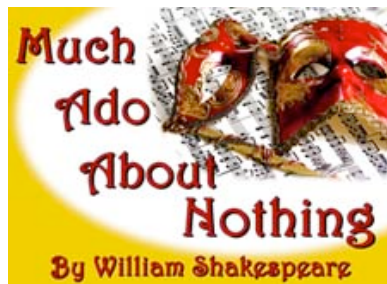

Please Join the Gifted Education Cooperative (GECO) on

Thursday, July 10, 2008

For an Evening of Shakespeare on the Lawn

Located on the grounds of the Mayslake Peabody Estate

Picnic Dinner at 6:45PM, Show Starts at 8:15PM, Backstage Tour After the Show Ends

We would like to celebrate summer with all of the GECO families, including current or former GRC / ACE students and their teachers. Plan to bring a picnic dinner for yourself and your family, plus a dessert item to share. You can bring a blanket or folding chairs to sit on. First Folio has rental chairs available, and they also sell drink and snack items.

We are going to be attending a preview show the night before the formal opening night, at a special price of $16 for adults or students (12 & under)—and free for teachers. (This is $3 cheaper than last year's special GECO / GRC group discount, and teachers are still free!) Please call First Folio directly at 630-986-8067 to reserve your tickets, and tell them you are attending with the GECO group.

Often referred to as Romeo and Juliet with a happy ending, Much Ado is the tale of the bickering Beatrice and Benedick, who admit their love only after helping sweet Hero save her reputation and win back her love, Claudio. One of Shakespeare's most popular comedies, Much Ado About Nothing is a perfect choice for a summer's evening outdoors.

For more information about First Folio Shakespeare Festival, please go to www.firstfolio.org.

For questions about the plans for the evening, please call Marty or Allison Malecki at 630-986-1196.